Mr. Lewis' Weekly Round-Up....

Happy Friday to all! Week 3 is officially in the books. It looks like this is going to be a fast year. I would again like to thank you for all that you continue to do to help us off to a great start!

Once again it looks like I am getting to be the party pooper. Please remember that we have strict guidelines on our birthday snacks, and they are listed in our Parent Guide from the first of the year. Most importantly, please remember are that they are birthday snacks, and not parties. The snacks also need to be peanut free and prepared in a health approved kitchen. If you have any questions, please let me know.

Have a great weekend!

Mark Lewis

Only one more week of the annual Jim Stone PTO fundraiser, it ends Friday, September 13. This year, there are only two products—A School Discount Card that sells for only $10 each and School Pride Tumblers for $15 each. This fundraiser makes up 90% of the PTO budget for the year, so we need your help! Our goal is to sell 3,000 discount cards to meet the yearly PTO budget for projects like the Jim Stone smartphone app, Dr. Seuss Reading Week, Grandparents Day and the Stallion Stampede Field Day. If you need more cards and books, please let your child’s teacher know so we can send more. If you’re unable to participate by selling all six cards and books, please return the unsold cards and books to your child’s teacher so they can be redistributed.

The class with the most cards/books sold in each grade level will receive a special pizza party and if we meet our goal of 3,000 cards/books sold, all grades will have a celebratory extra recess .
